

PUMPKIN ORANGE

A TWIST ON FALL FLAVORS

Prairie Berry's winemaker was inspired by fall baking flavors and co-fermented pumpkin and orange to create their first Pumpkin Orange wine!

TASTING & WINEMAKING NOTES

A twist on fall flavors, Pumpkin Orange is made from a blend of South Dakota pumpkins and oranges. It has semi-sweet flavors of ripe pumpkin and zesty citrus.

Hand grown and harvested pumpkins from South Dakota are peeled fresh and co-fermented with oranges then balanced with a touch of residual sweetness prior to bottling to showcase the orange and pumpkin flavors.

FOOD PAIRING & SERVING SUGGESTIONS

Serve chilled or try it warm with Prairie Berry Made Mulling Spice, and and enjoy with Manchago Cheese, an Autumn Harvest Salad with Orange Vinaigrette, General Tso's Chicken, or Orange Chocolate Meltaways.

In the Midwest, family tradition is something we hold dear. Stories, recipes, and traditions are passed down through the generations; celebrated and shared with neighbors and loved ones on occasions big and small, joyful and bittersweet. Such is the story of fifth generation winemaker Sandi Vojta and Prairie Berry Winery.

Founded in 1999 in a 500 sq. ft. basement, Sandi, together, with her father and husband, set out to create a unique South Dakota experience by way of a family tradition of winemaking. Sandi's great-great grandmother, Anna Pesä, immigrated to the Dakota Territory in 1876 from Moravia (now a part of the Czech Republic). On the South Dakota prairie, Anna used the local fruits she called 'prairie berries' to create wine for her family.

Today, from a 20,000 sq. ft. state of the art wine production facility in the Black Hills of South Dakota, Prairie Berry Winery has grown into one of the most successful wineries in the region and produces some of the most popular and award-winning wines in the Midwest, including the widely acclaimed wine Red Ass Rhubarb. Prairie Berry Winery wines have won over 1,000 international awards at many prestigious wine competitions including the San Francisco Chronicle, San Francisco International, Riverside International, Pacific Rim International, Finger Lakes International, and Indy International.

But beyond the fruits and grapes, woven into every bottle of wine Sandi produces, are the stories of women breaking ground, stories of family, stories of place and of course, a little bit of South Dakota.
